

NO HEART BALM FOR "RUZZIE" LAMB, SAYS JURY AFTER DEBATE

Twelve Men Fail To Assess Wealthy Divorcee For Jilting Him.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—"Ruzzie" Lamb, Russell G. Griswold will get no heart balm from Miss Helen Woodruff Smith, of Stamford, Conn., the jury today returning a verdict for the defendant.

Griswold had demanded $50,000 for alleged breach of promise to marry.

Neither the wealthy "Ruzzie" nor her youthful "Stiegfried" was in court when the verdict was read.

Failure to give "Ruzzie" Lamb at least some trifling cement for the broken pieces of his heart came as a distinct surprise. The jury had not reached an agreement when the case was adjourned for the week.

The case was heard by a jury of twelve men, who were sworn in by Judge Charles E. Smith.

The trial, which lasted three days, was filled with interesting moments. Griswold took the stand and told of his love for the wealthy divorcee, and of their alleged plighted troth, which he said Miss Smith broke and then told him it had been but a "pastime" for her.
